eCMID Accredited Vessel Inspectors' One Day Conference 2018

The Marine Surveying Academy (MSA), which manages the eCMID Accredited Vessel Inspectors scheme on behalf of the International Marine Contractors Association (IMCA) and the accrediting professional body, the International Institute of Marine Surveying (IIMS), is delighted to announce the 2018 One Day Conference for eCMID AVIs.

The special One Day Conference is being held in London adjacent to Heathrow Airport on Tuesday 22nd May 2018.

"With over 400 accredited eCMID Vessel Inspectors since we launched the scheme in mid 2015, we felt it is right to bring the AVIs together to learn, share knowledge and network. Over the course of the day we plan to deliver a mix of relevant presentations, some of which will be technical in nature."

Hilary Excell, MSA Business Manager

The cost for the day to include luncheon, tea and coffee breaks is GBP £165.00 + VAT where applicable. Can't join us in person? Then join online using Zoom as we stream all the presentations live.
